Correction Notice: The title of the article written by Catherine A. Kunz which was featured in the last issue of the European International Arbitration Review, Volume 5, Issue 1, contained typographical errors. The correct title of the article is “Waiver of Right to Challenge an International Arbitral Award Is Not Incompatible with ECHR: Tabbane v Switzerland.” The incorrect use of the words “not compatible” in the original published version resulted in an unintended distortion of meaning. We regret the error.
